Mrs. Mary May,

October 20, 1865.

($50)

Dear Mr. Garrison;

148 Learning that you propose a little journey westward, and knowing the increased cost at which we either stay at home or go abroad now, I have thought a little additional pocket money might prove acceptable to you, and will therefore ask your acceptance of the enclosed fifty dollars.

Your friend,
Mary Mary.

27 Hollis Street,
Boston, October 20. 1865.